Honorable George Bush
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Bush:

Back in June the Board of Governors of the Overseas Press Club adopted the attached resolution. Through an oversight it was not forwarded to you.

However, on June 26 the New York Times carried an article which said you had told representatives of the National News Council that the CIA would no longer hire foreign correspondents as agents of the CIA. There seems to be some question among our members as to whether this decision has been implemented. I trust it has but would appreciate confirmation from you.

Sincerely,

Matthew A. R. Bassity
